What's good about CDs?

If you want perfect sound, buy a CD player. But the CD is not new. The first CD was sold in 1982, and in 1986 one million CDs of Brothers in Arms by Dire Straits were bought.

CDs are only 12 centimetres across but each one has a line five kilometres long which can record over an hour of music. The music is recorded and played using a special light called a laser.

So what's good about CDs? Firstly CDs give much better sound than old-fashioned cassettes. Secondly, on a CD player you can choose which song you want to listen to, and you can decide which songs are played when. Thirdly, you can also get portable CD players like a Walkman which you can carry around with you. Fourthly, the latest CD equipment, like Vanessa's, is used to record as well as play music. Finally, it is very difficult to damage a CD, but please don't try, because it is possible!

1 Brothers in Arms was the first CD.
2 Lasers are used to make CDs.
3 CDs are more modern than cassettes.
4 It is easy to listen to your favourite songs on a CD.
5 You can't damage a CD.

6 Read and complete. For each number 1–9, choose word A, B, C or D.

The Abominable Snowman

Read and complete with these words. You might be able to use more than one word.

could maybe might possibly probably

People climbing in the Himalaya mountains north of India say that they have seen the footprints of a large animal. Some climbers say that they have seen the animal itself. They have called it the Abominable Snowman, or Yeti. The Yeti is larger than a human being and covered in hair. It walks like a human and seems to be scared of people. It has always been seen alone – never have two or more Yetis been seen together.

Does the Yeti really exist? What (1) ________________ it be? Some people think that (2) ________________ it's a distant relative of the human race or (3) ________________ an ancient tribe that got isolated in the cold and snowy mountains. Others think that it (4) ________________ be a species of Great Ape only recently discovered as these mountains have been explored. (5) ________________ it be a relative of the Canadian Bigfoot? Others argue that the mountains are lonely places where climbers 'see' things that (6) ________________ don't exist.

But the local Himalayan people say that the Yeti does exist. In a monastery high in the mountains they even have the skin of an animal which, they say, is the skin of a Yeti!

Lesson 4 Man or monster?

Reading and Writing

1 Mary Shelley wrote the story of Frankenstein nearly 200 years ago. What do you know about Frankenstein? How did he make his Monster?

Now read the first half of the story and number parts A–D in the right order.

Victor Frankenstein was born in Switzerland in 1870. He had a brother called William, and a girl called Elizabeth also lived with the family. He loved Elizabeth and wanted to marry her one day.

When Frankenstein was eighteen, he went to university to study science. He wanted to learn everything about the human body, and he wanted to make a person! He had a secret laboratory where he collected parts of dead bodies, and he put the parts together to make a huge man. He connected the body with metal wires to the roof of his house and then he waited for a storm.

A The fire destroyed the house, and there was nothing left of his laboratory. But Frankenstein was happy because he thought the Monster was dead.

Then he got a letter with dreadful news. His brother William was dead. And it wasn't an accident – it was murder! That night the Monster appeared, with a horrible smile on his face. And Frankenstein suddenly understood. 'The Monster has killed my brother!'

Then the Monster started to speak.

B 'What have you done?' cried Frankenstein. 'You have killed my best friend! Why don't you kill me too?'

'No, I won't kill you – not yet,' replied the Monster. 'But you have destroyed my woman. I will return on your wedding night, Victor Frankenstein!'

C The lightning flashed and the thunder crashed. Suddenly the lightning hit the wires on the roof and the electricity travelled down the wires to the body. Was it moving? Yes! An arm moved and then a leg. Then the man breathed. He was alive! But the man's skin was old, his eyes were yellow, and he smiled a terrible smile. And Frankenstein thought, 'I haven't made a man – I've made a Monster!'

He ran out of his laboratory and down the stairs. When he looked back, the Monster was standing at the top of the stairs, and the house was on fire!

D The Monster said, 'I hate you, Frankenstein. You have made me ugly and everyone hates me. So you must do something for me. You must make a woman who can love me. She must be ugly and terrible, like me.'

So Frankenstein agreed to make a woman monster. But his best friend, Henry, found out what he was doing and stopped him. While they were destroying the woman's body, the Monster jumped through the window and killed Henry.

2 Complete the second half of the story with these words.

after	and	because	before	but everyone	extremely	finally	for	now
suddenly	to	when	where	who

Frankenstein went back home and married Elizabeth. (1) ______________ the wedding, they went to stay in a hotel. But Frankenstein was worried because he was sure the Monster was near. He took his gun and searched the hotel for the Monster. (2) ______________ he heard a scream. It was Elizabeth! He ran back to their room (3) ______________ found his wife dead. (4) ______________ Frankenstein looked out of the window, he saw the Monster running away. He fired his gun, (5) ______________ the Monster was moving too quickly. He disappeared (6) ______________ Frankenstein could kill him.

Frankenstein was (7) ______________ upset about Elizabeth's death – he almost went crazy. And his father became ill and died when he heard the terrible news. Then Frankenstein said, 'I have lost (8) ______________ in my family. I will find the Monster and I will kill him.'

Frankenstein followed the Monster (9) ______________ years – through forests and across mountains. (10) ______________ they came to a place (11) ______________ there was nothing but ice and snow, and the Monster turned (12) ______________ talk to Frankenstein.

'I did not want to be bad,' said the Monster. 'I killed people because everyone was terrified of me. I destroyed your family (13) ______________ I had no family to love. But it was you (14) ______________ made me, and you gave me this ugly body.'

Then the Monster said, '(15) ______________ I am going to kill myself'. He gave Frankenstein one last look and then he walked away. And Frankenstein stayed in the ice and snow, and froze to death.

ROMEO AND JULIET

Romeo and Juliet is a famous play by Shakespeare. The story takes place in Verona in Italy, hundreds of years ago. There are two families in the town who are always fighting each other – the Capulets and the Montagues. Sometimes people are killed in the fights. One night Juliet Capulet and Romeo Montague meet at a dance …

'She is so beautiful,' Romeo said to himself when he saw Juliet. He walked up and asked her (1) _________ dance. They danced (2) _________ all evening. While they danced they looked into each other's eyes. 'I'm in love,' Romeo thought, '(3) _________ I don't know her surname.'

'He's wonderful,' Juliet said to a friend at the dance. '(4) _________ 's he called, I wonder?'

The dance ended and they said goodnight. As people left the dance Romeo asked a friend (5) _________ Juliet. 'She's a Capulet,' the friend answered. 'One of the family you are always fighting.' Romeo's face went white. At the same time Juliet learnt that Romeo's surname was Montague.

Later that night Romeo went to Juliet's house. He looked up at Juliet's window and saw her there.

'My family will kill you (6) _________ they see you,' Juliet said.

'I don't care,' Romeo answered. He looked up at Juliet and said 'I love you and want to marry you.'

'I love you (7) _________ ,' Juliet answered.

The next day Romeo and Juliet got married in secret. (8) _________ Juliet went back to her family. On his way home, Romeo saw a fight (9) _________ the Montagues and Capulets. He started fighting and in the fight he killed Juliet's cousin.

'What can I do?' Romeo said. 'Juliet will hate me for ever.'

While Romeo was fighting, Juliet's mother had a surprise (10) _________ her. 'You are getting married tomorrow,' her mother said. 'We have found a good husband for you. His name is Count Paris.'

'Romeo is the (11) _________ person I want to marry,' Juliet replied.

Her father got angry and shouted at her 'You're marrying Count Paris tomorrow!'

Juliet was terribly unhappy, (12) _________ she took a sleeping drug. Everyone thought she was dead. Romeo heard about Juliet and went to see her. (13) _________ he saw her body he said 'I don't want to live any more'. He kissed her goodbye and killed himself (14) _________ a knife.

Then Juliet woke up from her deep sleep (15) _________ found Romeo dead beside her. She picked up Romeo's knife and killed herself.

LESSON 4 Auckland and Dublin

READING AND WRITING

1 Read about Dublin and match these titles with paragraphs 1–5.

Travelling to Dublin	Foreign 'visitors'	Earliest history
Getting around the city	Something precious to see

1 ______________________________

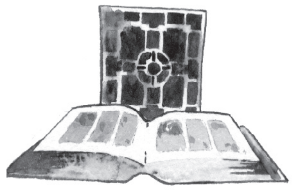

The city of Dublin had its thousandth birthday in 1988 but its story goes back over 2000 years to a small village near the mouth of the River Liffey. The village was called Ath Cliath (1) ____________ . When you catch a bus today to Dublin from outside the city, you will see on the front of the bus: Dublin Ath Cliath.

2 ______________________________

1100 years ago, the Vikings from Scandinavia sailed up the River Liffey to Ath Cliath. They built a small castle there. Today in the centre of the city you can visit 'Dublin's Viking Adventure', an exciting museum (2) ____________ the Vikings and their ships. Three hundred years after the Vikings the English arrived. In 1204 the English built Dublin Castle and the city was controlled by them until independence in 1921.

3 ______________________________

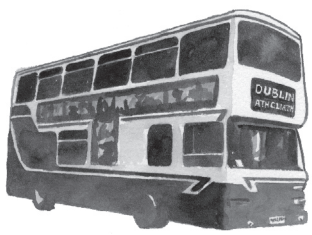

You can see one of the oldest books in the world in Dublin. You can find it in the Old Library of Trinity College Dublin. It is called 'The Book of Kells' and was written around 800 – that's 1200 years ago! The book is extremely valuable, so (3) ____________ two pages of it a day.

4 ______________________________

It's easy to get to Dublin from Britain. A flight from London is quite cheap and takes about an hour. There are also flights from other British and European cities. If (4) ____________ fly, you can catch a boat from Wales – on one of the fastest boats the journey takes under two hours.

5 ______________________________

Once you're in Dublin, there are lots of buses and the DART, a very good town railway. One (5) ____________ to get around Dublin is by bicycle. Walking is always fun – there's lots to see and plenty of friendly people to talk to.

GIRL POWER

AN MNX SPECIAL

In the 45-year history of the British 'Top Ten' pop charts, the girls have never had it so good! The fantastic success of the Spice Girls and singers like Celine Dion has changed the music scene. (1) ________ are more changes needed?

'Girl bands like All Saints look good, sound good and make interesting music,' a London DJ said. 'The truth is that they are better than boy bands like Boyzone. (2) ________ the future we'll see more and more girl bands.'

But not everyone agrees. 'It doesn't (3) _______ if it's a girl band or a boy band,' a well-known radio DJ said. 'For me it's the music that is important, (4) ________ who's singing it.'

One problem that girl bands have had in the past is that the managers and A&R people at record companies are (5) ________ men. 'Men control record companies,' a girl singer said angrily. 'And they choose (6) ________ makes the records.' But the Spice Girls have made people talk about 'girl power', which isn't such a bad thing. And there are lots of other girl bands who are just as good as them, but haven't been lucky (7) ________ . What we need are more women in record companies. We talked to one successful woman record company manager. 'I had to learn to talk about football because (8) ________ was all the men in the company were interested in,' she said. 'At my last job interview, I started talking about Arsenal and I got the job!'

Everyone has heard of the Spice Girls but they haven't sold (9) ________ many records as Celine Dion. 'With sales of more than 50 million she is the (10) ________ popular woman singer in the world,' a manager at her record company said. 'Her CD Falling Into You sold 25 million copies around the world and 2.5 million (11) ________ Britain.'

All Saints' success began with Never Ever in 1997. 'It was hard (12) ________ the start,' one of the band said. 'We did a lot of things that we didn't want to do. We were younger (13) ________ and people told us what to do. But now things have changed and we are doing our own thing. At the end of the day it's all about music, isn't it?'

(14) ________ we spoke to one of the people who work with the Spice Girls. 'Things are going in the right direction. There are more women in the pop charts and in record companies now than before. But (15) ________ is still a long way to go. I can't believe it's the start of the twenty-first century and men still control the music scene! We need much more girl power!'
